

Breath of the Lord

1. Breath of the Lord! The light-ning and the thun-der; A - cross the sky, the broil-
 2. Breath of the Lord! The cos-mos tells the sto-ry: Mael-stroms on Ju - pit - er,
 3. Breath of the Lord! Who ov - er cha - os brood-ed, Who in - to dust im - bued
 4. Breath of the Lord! Whose voice the proph-ets sound-ed, The words that shook the earth
 5. Breath of the Lord! With shout of ac - cla - ma - tion, The An - gel's trump-et blast

- ing storm-clouds form; The moun-tains shake, the ce - dars burst a - sund-er:
 sand-storms on Mars, The north - ern lights show in - can - des - cent glo - ry a liv - ing soul, Breathe on our souls, where sin and death in - trud - ed;
 and dimmed the sun: The words of Life, on your sure wit - ness found-ed, re - veals the day When we shall hear your praise or con-demn - a - tion

He rides the Cher - u - bim a - bove the storm: And shin - ing through the
 Of so - lar flares, the storm-clouds of the stars: Cre - a - tion hints, through Re - vive our dy - ing hearts, and make us whole: Op - en our eyes, to Can pierce our souls, and melt our hearts of stone: Your Spir - it's ho - ly
 And by your word the heav - ens pass a - way: Filled with your spir - it, dark-ness, bright-est light Dis - plays His wis - dom and his glor - ious might.

 mar - vels in the skies Of great - er glo - ries hid - den from our eyes.
 see the Ho - ly One, Fill us with awe, to think what He has done.
 will and work with - in Can guide our life, and guard our way from sin.
 count-ed as your own, May we with bold-ness stand be - fore your throne.