

6: Once a Garden Empty Stood

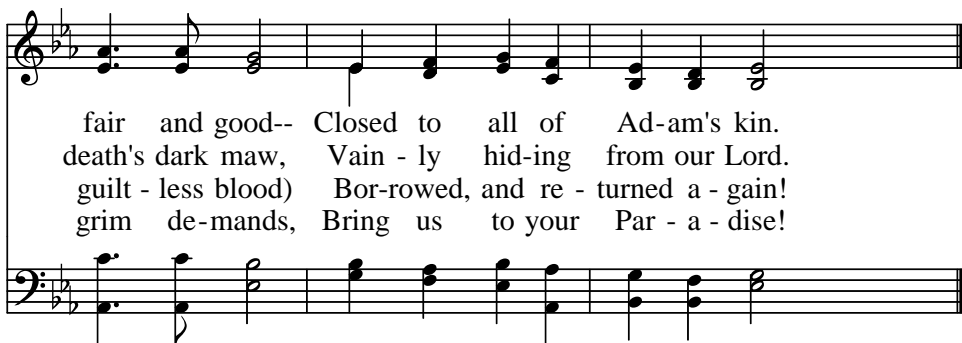

1. Once a gar-den emp - ty stood, Guard-ed by the
 2. We have all trans - gressed the law, Lis-tened to the
 3. Once a gar-den emp - ty stood: Cut by man as
 4. Still a gar-den emp - ty stands, Un - dis-turbed by cher - u - bin, Wat-ered by a four - fold flood,

 ser - pent's word: Lust - ing af - ter things we saw,
 death's do - main In a rich man's neigh - bor - hood;
 ser - pent's lies, Un - de - filed by hu - man hands!

With the tree of life with - in, Fit for all things
 Tempt - ed by the lies we heard, Light - ly ent' - ring Lent to God our sa - viour slain, (Last res - pect to Lord, who by your sac - r - ifice Sat - is - fied death's fair and good-- Closed to all of Ad-am's kin.

 death's dark maw, Vain - ly hid-ing from our Lord.
 guilt - less blood) Bor-rowed, and re - turned a - gain!
 grim de-mands, Bring us to your Par - a - dise!